

Celebrate Irish Culture & Theatre with the Eugene O'Neill Festival Tour

Celebrate the legacy of Eugene O'Neill with a unique cultural tour through Ireland. Enjoy world-class theatre in Dublin during the renowned Dublin Theatre Festival, followed by four unforgettable days in New Ross for the Eugene O'Neill International Festival of Theatre, packed with performances, heritage tours, and local music.

Arrival – Sunday, October 5th | Dublin

Guests arrive independently in Dublin. Please arrange your flight to arrive Sunday morning, October 5th.

- ☒ Airport transfer to The Fleet Hotel, a 4-star city-centre hotel in the heart of Dublin's Theatre District
- ☒ 3 nights accommodation (Sun 5th – Tues 7th) with dinner, bed & breakfast
- ☒ Theatre tickets to world-class performances at the Abbey Theatre, the Peacock Theatre, and the historic Gate Theatre
- ☒ Free time to explore Dublin's iconic attractions

Wednesday, October 8th | Transfer to New Ross

Pick up at the airport for those arriving Dublin Airport Wednesday a.m. for the New Ross only tour
Private group transfer to the Brandon House Hotel, New Ross.

- ☒ Welcome Reception hosted by New Ross Municipal Council

Thursday, October 9th | Hook Peninsula Excursion

- ☒ 9:00 a.m. departure from Brandon House Hotel
- ☒ Visit to Hook Lighthouse or Tintern Abbey
- ☒ Light lunch included
- ☒ 3:30 p.m. – O'Neill Society Academic Session at St. Michael's Theatre
- ☒ 8:00 p.m. – World Premiere:
The Memory Room by Sheila Forsey

Friday, October 10th | Heritage & Culture

- ☒ 9:00 a.m. departure
- ☒ Option 1: Visit to Dunbrody Famine Ship and Kennedy Homestead
- ☒ Option 2: Walking Tour of New Ross
- ☒ Light lunch at Dunbrody Visitor Centre
- ☒ 3:30 p.m. – O'Neill Society Academic Session
- ☒ 8:00 p.m. – Celebration of Traditional Irish Music from Carrig-on-Bannow

Saturday, October 11th | River Cruise & Theatre

- ☒ 10:30 a.m. departure
- ☒ Jazz River Cruise with light lunch aboard the Barrow Princess
- ☒ 8:00 p.m. – The Hairy Ape presented by the Eugene O'Neill Foundation

Sunday, October 12th | Departure

Early morning transfer to Dublin Airport for return flights to the US.